The Shriners Ball.

Mt. Sinai Temple, No. 3, A. A. O. N. M. S., gave one of the most delightful social affairs of the season in the form of ladies' night and ball at Pythian hall Friday evening. It was the first affair of the kind ever given here by the Shriners and was attended by about 40 couples, each man wearing a red fez and each woman a white one. The hall was beautifully decorated and never presented a prettier appearance. Quantities of red, white and blue hunting were festooned from the central electrolier to the sides and corners of the rooms and the walls were hung with flags with emblems, cut from papers, between. Even the ante rooms were gay with flags and bunting. The rooms on the second floor were utilized for dressing, smoking and card rooms.

The evening opened with a short musical and literary program as follows: Overture, "Orpheus" Offenbach Songs, Madam Brock's Orchestra Violin Solo, Mrs. H. H. Miltimore Reading, Miss Dorothy B. Mills A Few Stories, Frank O. French Selection, "Scottish Songs," Harry Lauder Orchestra
